Toronto Police and St. Mike's Majors Face off with at-risk and newcomer children

November 2, 2005

TORONTO - Youth Assisting Youth (YAY) in collaboration with Toronto Police Services and Toronto St. Michael's Majors will host a street hockey game for at-risk and newcomer Canadian children.

DATE: Sunday, November 6, 2005
TIME: 2 pm to 4 pm
PLACE: 5734 Yonge St.
YAY Head Office parking lot
(just north of Yonge and Finch)

Come out and cheer on our kids, Police Officers and OHL Stars!

Youth Assisting Youth is a non-profit charitable youth mentoring organization. YAY matches volunteer youth mentors aged 16 to 29 with at-risk, vulnerable and newcomer Canadian children aged 6 to 15 to help keep them in school and out of the Youth Justice System.
